ABOUT KAKADU ORGANICS

PRODUCT :
KAKADU TUCKER JAM

Kakadu Organics is Indigenous owned female led company originating from a small Aboriginal community in Kakadu, Northern Territory of Australia. Our founder Kylie-Lee Bradford grew up in Kakadu, NT and has a passion for creating sustainable communities through increasing economic empowerment for Aboriginal people in business.

Kakadu Organics is a unique Aboriginal company supplying a wide range of native bush foods and wellness products using traditional wisdom and ancient mythology taught and pass down through generations

Our company was first featured on Shark Tank Australia back in 2016 and now supplies to leading hotel chains, airports, department stores and exports internationally.

WHY WE DO IT.

Kylie-Lee's mother Sheril is a traditional owner and very well respected elder of Kakadu National Park, Our mission is to keep Sheril's legacy alive through all the incredible work we do alongside rural and remote Aboriginal communities all over Australia.

Growing up in a small Aboriginal community we have seen first-hand the struggles our communities face on a daily basis, by working with entrepreneurs and community organisations we are on a mission to create economic and social change.

AMENITIES AND HOTEL SPA PRODUCTS

Our team prides themselves on preserving and respecting mother earth and all she gives us, we have a deep connection to country and are committed to reducing unnecessary environmental impact.

We are a manufacturing partner for Accor QLD/ NT producing beautiful organic Kakadu plum amenities in eco friendly packaging. Working along side hotels and wellness centre to create truly memorable products and experiences.

WHO ARE WE

KYLIE-LEE BRADFORD FOUNDER

Our founder and inspirational leader, Kylie-Lee Bradford has a diverse business background and has succeeded in a variety of different roles.

Kylie-Lee is a proud Murraburr woman with her mother being a traditional owner for the Kakadu region of the Northern Territory. Kylie's own experience in this remote, beautiful country has formed the basis of many business designs and ideas.

Some of Kylie's highlights include:

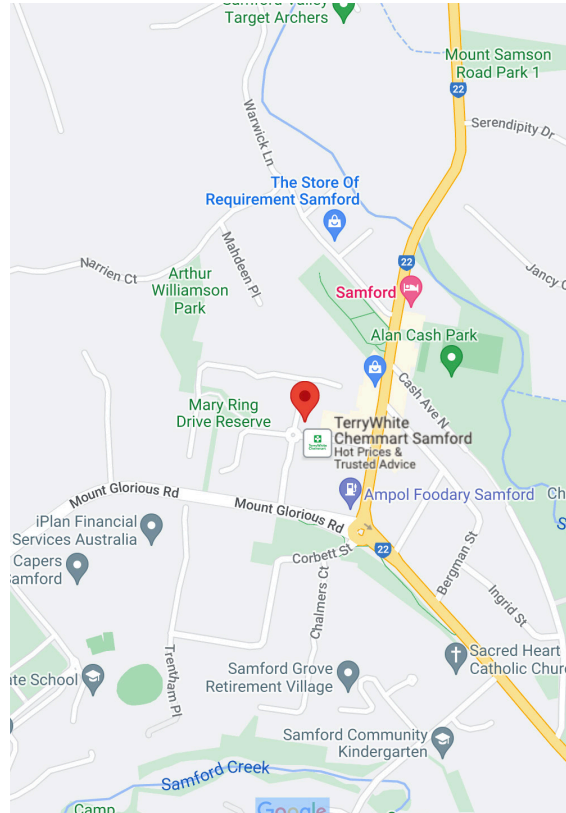

- Going through an arduous auditioning process and made it through to Shark Tank on Channel 10 and was successful on the live shows and received 2 offers of investment from Sharks Steve Baxter and John McGrath.

- Invited to sit on the board of Facebook SMB Council Australia
- Undertook a 6-week Investible program ran by serial entrepreneur Creel Price and won 1st place in Australia.
- Guest speaking for Indigenous Business Australia at several big events and conferences.
- Nominated and winning many business awards including most recently "excellence in Indigenous Business"

OUR STORE

SHOP 12B/19 MAIN STREET, SAMFORD VILLAGE, QLD, AUSTRALIA, QUEENSLAND.

The need to adapt during the ongoing Covid situation forced us to take a look at our branding and market position and led to 'Kakadu Organics' being born and the launch of our Indigenous Wellness store which also operates as a juice bar located in beautiful Samford Valley.
